

STATE MANDATE

According to State Law, married women are required to obtain their husband's permission prior to entering the work force.

If a woman loses her reproductive rights, who knows what rights she could lose next.
Support the Pro-Choice Public Education Project while you still can.